

Activity Card Dilemma or SJS Game Solved

crisis involving a malfunctioning Photo Studio camera and the subsequent lack of activity cards for the San Jose State foot game has been resolved.

THE CRISIS arose after the announcement from Ray Becker, in charge of University Development, that all students must have an activity card photo in order to get tickets for the game, since the camera malfunctioned.

Deadline Set for Competing Satire Skits

"Historical Hysterics" is the name of this year's Skits-o-Rama, according to Culture officers.

THE ANNUAL all-campus competition is being staged to determine which campus organization can most thoroughly present original facts.

Entrance applications must be completed by Friday. They can be picked up at the office of the Vice-President of Culture on the fourth floor of the Wilkinson Center.

ARTICPATNG groups can escape any event in history, the 50-franc committee said and set that groups representing graphical areas or specific cuisines choose relevant significant acts to portray.

As competition is open to any organization, a Council affiliate cannot participate with more than one organization and they must be a member of the group entering the skit.

COMPLETED copy of the skit must be by Oct. 15, the committee said. The Semi-finals will be held on Oct. 20. The actual competition will be held for the student body in the Fieldhouse on Friday, Nov. 1.

The skit must be written by a member of the organization and must not exceed ten minutes in length. A point system will be used to evaluate originality and adaptability to the theme.

SCENERY will be allowed at semi-finals, and a limit of $25 per group is being imposed for finals.

Information about the competition can be obtained from David G. Gault at 373-2525.

many students' pictures didn't turn out and had to be taken again.

According to Jerry Rogers, BYU Photo Studio Director, students' pictures that were taken on Sept. 22 and some taken last Friday did not turn out. Director Rogers said that in the first instance a Photo Studio employee inadvertently jammed the magazine in one camera causing it to fail to operate.

Last Friday a make-up was placed over the lens causing some other picture not to turn out. Students were concerned that if they did not have their pictures re-taken in time, they wouldn't be allowed to get into the San Jose State game Friday night.

Director Rogers announced late Wednesday that all students who had their pictures taken BEFORE Thursday at 2 p.m. will be able to pick them up BEFORE Friday at 6 p.m. and use them to be admitted into the game.

Rogers urged all students who had pictures taken Friday to check with the Photo Studio early Thursday morning and make sure their pictures turned out. If not, they will have to be re-taken before the deadline on Thursday afternoon, he said.

FLOYD TAYLOR, director of ticket sales, said students who do not get in before the deadline to at least have cards stamped with a date in the event pictures do not turn out cannot be admitted to the game.

List Clubs

All campus organizations must be registered by Monday according to the Inter-Organization Council.

IOC OFFICIALS indicated that registration will take place in 328 Wilkinson Center. Clubs not registered will be unable to schedule meetings on campus.

A revised IOC Constitution is ready to be ratified and copies of this are also available at registration. A mandatory IOC meeting will be held on Oct. 14 for ratification of the constitution.

ALL CAMPUS organizations are required to have a representative at the ratification meeting or face cancellation of scheduling privileges.

Any suggestions for constitutional changes should be brought to the IOC desk on the fourth floor of the Wilkinson Center as soon as possible, IOC officials said.

Watching as more signatures are added to a telegram to be sent to Congress is Jim Avery (center) head of BYU Young Republicans. The petition protesting against the 14-B repeal measure will be read in the Senate by Sen. Wallace F. Bennett.

Students Protest 14-B Repeal

Thousands of signatures are expected on a petition which will be sent by the BYU Young Republicans to Senator Wallace F. Bennett in Washington D.C.

ACCORDING to Young Republican President Jim Avery, the petition is to let the Senate know how students feel about the controversial Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Repeal law bill.

Sen. Bennett was originally scheduled to read the telegram and all of the BYU student's signatures during a speech he was scheduled to make during an opposition filibuster to the bill on Friday.

EVERY SAID that late word received from Sen. Bennett on Wednesday indicated the opposition forces were building to propose a motion to table the bill. They said gathered 43 votes and with a few additional votes will be able to move the proposal to the next session of Congress.

Thus the BYU telegram will probably not be sent until sometime next week. The telegram reads: As citizens of the United States we believe in the principles set forth in the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights, that the repeal of Section 14-B would result in the loss of one of the basic rights of men—to choose the conditions under which he is to earn his livelihood. Free agency is to be guarded and preserved above all else."

EVERY INDICATED that the Young Republicans do plan to send a telegram Thursday to Senator Frank Moss urging him to vote for the motion to table the bill, so he and the Senate could "get to the more important legislative matters, and so that Senator Moss can get home to Utah and find out what the real feelings of the people about the bill are."

After a day of gathering signatures near the Wilkinson Center, the group planned to gather more Wednesday night in the dormitories.

Smoke Clears From Dance Issue

As the smoke clears from the "fad dance" issue and national comment subsidizes it appears that most students are pleased with the decision of the Executive Council.

Letters to the Editor recently received seem to be rehearsing the same arguments that have been expressed during the past two weeks both for and against continuing previous dance procedures.

What has the Executive Council really said? It seems to boil down to control. However, the question that enters one's mind is who will control.

The responsibility has been placed on Vice President of Social Craig Collette and the Social Activity Board. As mentioned in the signed statement from the Executive Council "the implementation of these policies will be the responsibility of the Social Activities Board in whom we have great trust."

The signed Executive Council policy endorsed a statement made by the First Presidency and stated five additional proposals which gave authority to the Social Activity Board.

The Board voted 7-5 for a proposed recommendation to keep the stamp bands last week. We hope that they are in accord with the feelings of the Executive Council more than they were in accord with each other last week.

The Board may control the music but it is up to the student to control and decide what is "good posture, acceptable body movements and dance positions."

Great trust is being placed in the Social Activity Board but even greater trust is being placed in the individual BYU student.

The smoke has cleared. We hope students can now use their own judgement clearly.

Summer Vacation Roping Lucrative

by Jaron Summers
Universe Feature Editor

Dale Little Soldier earned about five hundred dollars a minute this summer.

And while doing it, he became the 1965 winner of the Rocky Mountain Rodeo Association Calf Roping Trophy.

"THE TIME between those six minutes was pretty long. I drove over 30,000 miles through Utah, Idaho and Wyoming to enter different rodeos."

The toughest part was Rodeoing Saturday, then driving all night to teach Sunday School the next morning.

DALE—WHO is a BYU graduate student and a member of the three affiliated tribes of the Dakotas: Arickaras, Mandan and Gros Ventre—was converted to the LDS Church last year.

He was impressed, "With the clean living guys that rodeoed for the Y."

ALTHOUGH DALE has been rodeoing for 8 years, this is only his second year representing the Y.

"They don't give scholarships for riding here but I'd still rather go to the Y than most of the other Universities where I've been offered scholarships."

DALE ENTERS only timed events: bulldogging, calf roping and team roping. In the latter, two men attempt to lasso a steer around the neck and legs.

No matter what a cowboy does to make money, "It isn't all gray."

"A GOOD HORSE runs up to a couple of thousand dollars. I've been offered $15.00 for "Tater," Dale mentioned, stroking the muzzle of one of the two horses he takes on the rodeo circuit.

"I guess I'm kinda lucky though, Dad raises horses and when I need one I just get in the pick-up and drive back home for one."

"WE USED to keep about two hundred horses but Dad figured it was best to sell them and get twenty or thirty good ones. It worked out real good."

But even if Dale gets a free horse once in a while, there is still the expense of trucking, rodeo fees and hotels.

FOR THE future Dale plans to "Work in the winter, teaching, and in summer rodeoing as long as I stay in one place."

And sometimes when two horns on the end of a 700 lb. bull suddenly twist faster than a rodeo rider's reflexes, a cowboy doesn't stay in "one piece" very long.

From the calf's point of view Dale Little Soldier demonstrates the hard part of calf roping. The cowboy lassos the critter, then ties three of its legs together with a pippet string. Dale is clutching one between his teeth.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Dance Standard Clarification

ASBYU Press Secretary
by Darryl Harris

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a weekly column to be featured every Thursday in the Daily Universe. Student government activity will be interpreted and commented upon to enlarge student understanding in this area.)

Several items need clarification relating to recent ASBYU dance standard misconceptions. First, the stamp is not completely out at BYU, not yet at least.

Newspaper articles and newscasts have interpreted the executive council dance decision as a ban on all fad stamp dances. To quote ASBYU President Bob Christiansen, Social Vice President Craig Collette, and the entire council:

"The policy bans only suggestive dances that cannot comply with Church standards. We feel some stamp dances can be done in compliance with these standards. It will be up to the students to see that their dancing is not suggestive. If it is, we will then have no alternative but to eliminate all stamp dancing."

The social vice president said his board was not yet equipped to control stamp dances, and a conventional ban will be used in the dance Friday. Students, however, will be permitted to stamp at the dance if Church standards are kept, he added.

Another point. I attended the executive council meeting Monday, seemed to me council members were more concerned with the First Presidency's statement on dance standards, than with what the administration had said about it. Note I beginning of the BYU dance policy declaration. The First Presidency statement is quoted verbatim.

The executive council would have made the same decision regardless of recent administration demands. Dance standards has been a subject of controversy, not only since the beginning of fall semester, but all last year. Ex-ASBYU President Bruce Olsen and his staff worked on it. A decision was inevitable.

Other dance standard matters: Someone has finally taken a dance policy stand. The whole world is interested. Bob Christiansen was interviewed by United Press International, Associated Press, Intermountain Network and KSL after the meeting Monday. Many newspapers, radio and television stations carried the story.

Says Bob: "I told them the council is standing up for what the majority of students think is right."

There will possibly be press representatives at the next few campus dances. The world now wants to see for sure.

What the press sees, and more important, what the Social Office sees, will be the deciding factor as to whether or not a complete stamp ban is necessary. There is a chance a few students will decide the remaining stamp issue for everyone.

"For the sake of non-members who look to BYU as the standard of Mormonism," a graduating senior questionnaire response pleaded, "please moderate dancing at BYU."

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Defense Department said Wednesday an Air Force F-105 attack plane is missing on bombing mission in North Viet Nam but that "at this time available information does not substantiate Red China's claim that American planes flew over Chinese territory."

BALTIMORE, Md., (AP)—Automation goes into the streets in downtown Baltimore tonight and presents the city with new problems, even before it begins.

SWEEPING MACHINES will replace the men with the brooms, saving an estimated $100,000 on annual street cleaning bills.

But the sweepers can't clean under parked cars as the man sweepers could. So the city must either adopt new timing parking regulations or leave dirt under parked vehicles.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, (AP)—A surprise overnight military alert here ended Wednesday, apparently paving the way for a smooth transition of power to opposition candidates victorious in 7 of 11 state gubernatorial elections.

PRESIDENT HUMBERTO Castello Branco met with his army, navy and air force ministers this morning as army and navy units relaxed from the alert.

LBJ Spells Out Pact

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A kind of extralegal pact—not spelled out in any law—provides that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will act as President if need be during President Johnson's hospital stay.

THE AGREEMENT between Johnson and Humphrey was reached because the founding fathers left a gap, or at least a vague spot, in the constitution.

A proposed Constitutional Amendment designed to remedy this and assure the smooth flow of Presidential power has been passed by Congress and is now before the states.

Drysdale Takes Early Shower...

Twins Rout National League Champs

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, (AP)—Minnesota's high-pitched Twins drove a six-run third inning and the steady pitching of Jim Muecke to Grant to an 8-2 rout of the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the opening game of the 1965 World Series Wednesday.

ZOILLO VERSALLES, the fleet shortstop who keyed the Twins' drive to the American League pennant, led their attack. He smacked a three-run homer off Don Drysdale in Minnesota's big uprising in the third and singled in another run in sixth.

Versalles provided the big punch as the American League Champions put it out of reach after Frank Quilici started the uprising with a leadoff double. Quilici drove in the sixth run of the inning his second time at bat with a single that routed Drysdale.

A COSTLY error by Jim Lefebvre, who juggled the throw to first after Minnesota pitcher Jim Grant's sacrifice bunt, made four of the runs in the inning unearned.

The Twins also got a double by Sandy Valdespino, singles by Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey and a walk in the third.

VERSALLES SINGLED in Grant in the sixth after the pitcher had doubled.

Grant scattered 10 hits through nine innings, including Ron Fairly's 370 foot homer in the second. Don Miner tied it in the bottom of the inning with a homer.

A capacity crowd of 47,797 at Metropolitan Stadium watched the first World Series game ever staged in the Twin Cities, with the weather warm and sunny.

6. Purdue (2-0)
7. Notre Dame (2-1)

Bowling Tryouts Slated

Tryouts for the intercollegiate bowling team will begin Saturday at 2 p.m.

According to Shafter Bown, advisor to the Games Committee, students desiring to compete for one of the ten slots on the men's or women's team must sign up at the games desk on or before Saturday, October 9. Each student will bowl at least fifteen lines so that a fair determination of averages can be made.

Team members will have the privilege of bowling practice lines, Monday through Friday on lanes that will be withdrawn from open bowling.

THE TEAM will have to work hard to match the performance of last year's keepers who ranked high in national competition. After walking off with all the laurels in the Rocky Mountain Conference, the pin champions went on to take top honors at the Associated College Unions' Tournament in Albuquerque.

Following a clean sweep of doubles competition with the help of Frosty Hansen, team captain Blake Napper won the singles by a wide margin.

NAPPER entered the finals of the National Intercollegiate Bowling Championships at St. Paul, Minn. He finished 46th in the nation out of 18,857 college bowlers who competed for the 1965 champion's crown.

This year's team will have hardly enough time to get organized before competition begins in the Rocky Mountain Conference. Colleges participating in the Conference are Utah State, Utah, Weber State, Brigham Young University, and Idaho State.

BYU will host its own Invitational Tournament sometime in February.

It is hoped that the team will again be invited to the Associated College Unions' Tournament.

MORE TEAMS are needed for the Saturday morning Student Mixed-Doubles League. Last week there were not enough students on hand to form more than nine teams. A team consists of two boys and two girls.
